Attorney H. F. Connors, of the O. R. & N. legal department, is in the city from Portland.
County Treasurer E. J. Sommerville, left for Portland this morning to be absent for several weeks.
Frank Spike and wife of Echo, are guests of Hotel St. George while in the city today on business.
H. C. Willis of Echo, will leave tomorrow for the El Paso irrigation congress, to represent the Echo district.
F. F. Waffle, extra passenger conductor of La Grande is on the Pendleton-Huntington run for a few days.
Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lennon, of Walla Walla, arrived in Pendleton this morning on their way home from St. Louis.
Mrs. H. R. Keylor, wife of a prominent Walla Walla physician, is in Pendleton visiting her sister, Mrs. C. E. Roosevelt.
A. A. Duley, representing Bradstreet's Commercial Agency, is in Pendleton on business connected with his office.

Mayor J. D. Slater, of La Grande, a brother of Attorney R. J. Slater, of this city, is attending to business before the supreme court.
W. B. Montgomery, representative of the Continental Casualty Company with headquarters in Portland, is in the city on business today.
Engineer H. A. Burroughs, formerly a printer on the East Oregonian, was on No. 2 last evening, in the absence of Engineer Frank Holm.
D. W. Campbell, superintendent of the O. R. & N. lines in Washington, with headquarters at Starbuck, spent last night in the city on official business.
C. C. Pennington, sheriff of Union county, formerly a Umatilla county boy, was among the Knights Templar delegation in the city yesterday from La Grande.

Mrs. Thomas Nye and the two children arrived from Pomeroy, Wash., last night and are guests at the Nye home on Water street, expecting to remain for some time.

S. O. Swackhammer, former receiver of the La Grande land office and ex-sheriff of Union county, was in the city yesterday attending the funeral of Charles F. Brown.

United States Senator and Mrs. Levi Ankeny, of Walla Walla, accompanied by Mr. Ankeny's secretary, Arthur F. Statter, are expected in Pendleton this evening on their way East.

M. L. Causey, the man who brought the sugar factory to La Grande, and chief promoter in the Sunnyside railroad at Sunnyside, Wash., was in the city yesterday afternoon.

The Rev. G. L. Hall, from Pendleton, arrived in the city this morning and will assist the Rev. Day in conducting the revival meeting at the Baptist church at this place.—La Grande Observer.

J. A. Burleigh, former representative in the legislature from Walla Walla county, was a guest of Hotel St. George last night, on a return from Walla Walla. He reports Walla Walla county highly prosperous because of the high price of wool, and the good crops.

Register Edward W. Davis, of the La Grande land office, attended the funeral of Charles F. Brown yesterday, as a member of the Knights Templar delegation from La Grande. Land office business, he says, is very brisk, but nothing to compare to last year.

R. & N. for the winter, expecting to go back to his claims in the spring. The deep snows prevent him from working in the mines during the winter season.

YEE SIN DEAD.

Demise Result of Being Struck by Falling Tree.

Yee Sin, a Chinese, 54 years of age, died last night from injuries received a few days ago, by being struck by a falling tree. The death occurred at 9:30 o'clock at a little house in West Alta street, where Gee Sin and two companions lived.

Yee Sin, Ah Gee and Ah June were engaged Tuesday chopping down trees on Wesley Matlock's place near the West Alta street baseball park, when a falling tree struck the first named on the head. His companions did not consider the wound serious, and no physician was called. Some medicine was secured yesterday from Dr. W. G. Cole.
The funeral of the dead man will take place tomorrow.
